[redacted] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to say that the State Department had advised him of a publication produced by the Brookings Institute for us entitled "Where's What?" He said this was a reference document for information and record location. He said he was aware that it was classified Confidential but if a copy could be made available to them they would, of course, respect the security classification. I told Sourwine I would look into this and be back in touch with him.
